Message from the Chair

This was a very busy summer for the Louisiana Section. In July, we had a strategic planning retreat to continue our efforts to provide value to our membership. Tony Van Der Vooren, who is the current president of A&WMA came to the weekend meeting to moderate the strategic planning session and give us his wisdom and perspective.

As a result, several areas were targeted for action including providing the best speakers and topics for our meetings and beginning an initiative to more actively involve the “young” professionals in our association. To this end, we will be contacting several of you directly to help us work on these initiatives and expand our insight on how to achieve our goals.

The August lunch meeting in Baton Rouge was well attended by over 80 professionals and was very timely for all of us working diligently to meet the emission inventory requirements using the new ERIC system for reporting.

We are continuing our effort to provide this kind of up-to-date technical information with our two-day Fall Conference which will be held in Baton Rouge on October 29th and 30th. Cheryl Nolan has worked diligently with our Conference Committee headed up by Michael Vince and Karen Brignac to ensure that the latest initiatives from the Louisiana Department of Environmental Quality will be addressed. I hope to see you at our Fall Conference.

Association News

Climate Policy Conference

Certainly, most members have been deluged with correspondence relating to meetings and conferences on the topic of climate change or greenhouse gases. Many of these events are geared to discuss a particular point of interest. In an attempt to bring all parties to the table, the Association will be holding a symposium on Climate Policy this spring, which you will soon be receiving information about.

The event will be entitled “The Climate Policy Puzzle: Putting the Pieces Together” and will be held in the Washington DC area on April 2 and 3, 2008. The conference will be chaired by Bill Palermo of RTP Environmental Associates, Inc., and John Seitz, former Director of EPA’s Office of Air Quality Planning and Standards.

Section Election

The Section Election for Secretary and one Director position is currently underway. By now, you should have received a letter from the Section advising you of the voting procedures, which will make use of the Association’s On-Line Voting Center. The opportunity to vote closes on midnight, October 25, 2007. Please be sure to cast your vote.

July Lunch & September Dinner Meetings

The July lunch meeting was held on Thursday, July 19, 2007 at Boudreaux's in Baton Rouge.

Ms. Jennifer Mouton of the Louisiana Department of Environmental Quality was the featured speaker for this meeting. Ms. Mouton spoke about changes to the emissions inventory and TEDI reporting programs. There were over 60 attendees present for this meeting.

Turnout for this meeting was very good and participants indicated that they liked the lunch format. The Board of Directors will consider holding more lunch meetings in the future.

On September 20th, Senator Heulette "Clo" Fontenot addressed nearly 50 members and guests for a dinner meeting that was held at Middendorf's Restaurant at Pass Manchac. Senator Fontenot held the audience captive with his observations and insight relative to the upcoming primary election.

Louisiana Science and Engineering Fair

The Louisiana Science and Engineering Fair provides a unique educational opportunity for public and non-public school students in grades 6 through 12. Through development and presentation of science and engineering projects, students enhance their ability to:

- Make observations;
- Ask questions regarding scientific phenomena;
- Formulate ideas regarding the solution to a problem; and
- Effectively present their works to society.

Most educators agree that this type of activity provides the ultimate learning experience.

Each year, the Louisiana Section participates in judging the Louisiana Science and Engineering Fair, placing particular emphasis on environmental projects submitted by students in grades 9 through 12. Winners receive an award plaque and a cash stipend in honor of their hard earned efforts. We are proud to announce the winners of this year's awards:

First Place: "Ozone Pollution: Are Inversions a Factor?", presented by Miss Lynne Chapman, St. Joseph's Academy in East Baton Rouge Parish.

Second Place: "Recycle Content vs. Ring Crush", presented by Miss Lexi Romine, Caddo Parish Magnet High School.

Third Place: "The Toxicity of Nanoparticles", presented by Mr. Brenden Walter from Doyline High School in Webster Parish.

Fourth Place: "To Seed or not to Seed", presented by Miss Emily Buras from Ursuline Academy in Orleans Parish.

2007 Environmental Focus

The Louisiana Section of the Air & Waste Management Association in cooperation with the Louisiana Department of Environmental Quality is holding its Environmental Focus 2007 on October 29 and 30 at the Holiday Inn Select Hotel and Conference Center in Baton Rouge.

This year's conference features speakers from

LDEQ and EPA, industry, consulting, and the legal community. We'll hear about hot air topics such as an update on ozone in the Baton Rouge area, Smart LDAR, and new regulations. We'll also hear about multi-media topics such as the revised Louisiana solid waste regulations and an update on hazardous waste permitting. New this year are two sessions devoted to training for Young Professionals. Young Professionals are defined as individuals 35 years old and under but can also include those persons new to the field (and those young at heart!). The sessions will include talks on the history of the LDEQ and the air program as well as the development of laws and regulations. The afternoon features "What's That Thang?" – a discussion of four industrial processes with plenty of pictures.

To view the complete agenda along with the registration forms, go to the Louisiana Section website at laawma.org. We hope to see you there!

Scholarship Program Awards

Heather Owens, Winner of the Gus VonBodungen Award.

Each year, the Air & Waste Management Association is pleased to offer its Scholarship Award Program at the collegiate level, promoting air and waste management practices by encouraging academic excellence in these areas. Letters requesting applicants for the scholarship award were sent to universities in the geographical region of the section, and applications for the scholarship award program have been received.

We are proud to announce the winners of this year's awards. They were chosen by the selection committee based on their interest statements, resumes, GPA and interviews which demonstrated their dedication to environmental issues.

Our annual first place, Gus vonBodungen award, in the amount of $3,000, went to Ms. Heather Owens at Louisiana State University.

Three additional students also each received $2,000 each:

- Ms. Jasleen Kaur, Louisiana State University;
- Mr. Samuel Best, Louisiana State University;
- Mr. James Dicharry, Louisiana State University.

Congratulations to all our scholarship winners!!!

Jasleen Kaur, Winner of $2,000 Scholarship.

Adopt-A-School Program

The primary purpose of the Louisiana Section Adopt-A-School program is to select an elementary school at which the Section will award a cash donation for use at the 5th, 6th, 7th or 8th grade level in the area of science education. It is the Louisiana Section's desire that the funds be allocated to a specific project or purpose rather than simply becoming assimilated into the school's general fund.

In addition to the cash donation, the Louisiana Section also endeavors to assist the school in its program for the year by providing speakers and arranging other educational offerings throughout the section year.

No specific form for the proposal is required. The proposals will be evaluated equally on need and quality of the proposed program.

The Louisiana Section requests that, at a minimum, the following information be provided regarding the school being nominated:

1. General background information about the school, including: the number of students in school and in the 5th/6th /7th/8th grades; the demographics of student population.
2. The significance the cash donation would have in the school's overall program of science education, specifically: a clear explanation of why the school needs the grant, and the total number of students who will benefit from the grant.
3. Specific information regarding the intended use for the funds and the need for teacher training in the environmental sciences.

The more project-oriented grant requests tend to score higher points with the judges than simple grant requests for money for the school's general science funding.

Ideally, but not a requirement, a Louisiana Section member nominating a school should be involved with the school and would be expected to act as liaison between the association and the school in the presentation of the award and any additional activities scheduled for the school during the year.

Recipients of the grant will be requested to attend a Louisiana Section dinner meeting in New Orleans in January to receive the funds. Attendance is encouraged, but not required. Details will be provided at a later date.

Proposals should be received no later than 5pm November 30, 2007. Please address them to either Raquel Murphy OR Beth Hughes at the address information listed below:

Outstanding Achievement Award - Louisiana Section Honors 2006 and 2007 Award Winners

In 2001, the Louisiana Section of the Air & Waste Management Association established an annual award to recognize outstanding achievement in the fields of air pollution control or waste management. The award recipient is a company or individual whose contribution to the state of the art technology has been accomplished within the last two years.

Due to Hurricane Katrina, the Section did not select an award winner in 2006, for the year 2005. Therefore, this year, we selected two award winners, one for a project implemented in the year 2005, and the other for a project implemented in the year 2006.

The Section has been pleased with the high quality of projects nominated for the award in previous years, and the years 2005 and 2006 were no exception. The winner for the year 2006 was the East Baton Rouge City-Parish DPW Environmental Division. The title of the winning project was "Hurricane Woody Debris Converted Into Boiler Fuel." The goal of the project was to mulch or chip the woody debris from Hurricanes Katrina and Rita and to use the resulting chips as boiler fuel for local industry. By exerting extra effort to process the debris through a chipper instead of burning or landfilling it, the City-Parish was able to create a source of income, benefit the environment, save landfill airspace, and provide a cost-effective source of fuel for local industry. Approximately 550,000 cubic yards of debris were handled in this manner as a result of this project.

fill gas not replaced natural gas in the fired heater.

Both award winners, East Baton Rouge City-Parish DPW Environmental Division (2006), and Cytec Industries, Inc. (2007) were honored at the Section's dinner meeting at Midden-dorf's on September 20th.

We look forward to receiving your nominations for the 2008 Outstanding Achievement Award.

The 2007 Award winner was Cytec Industries, Inc. Cytec's project was entitled "Burn Landfill Gas in Process Air Preheater." The project entailed using landfill gas, a renewable biofuel derived from decomposing organic material, in a process air preheater. The project reduced Cytec's energy costs, generated a new revenue stream for the local parish government from gas royalties, and reduced the area's carbon and nitrogen emissions that would have been released had the land-

Acadiana Home School Wins Louisiana Envirothon 2007

On May 5, students from across the State met at ULL's Cade Farm in St. Martin Parish to compete in the Louisiana Envirothon 2007. After months of preparations and training at such locations as ULL and the Wadill Solar Building, energy ran high among the contestants and the organizers. As the teams of students moved through the stations demonstrating their knowledge in aquatics, forestry, soils, energy and wildlife. Each team was also required to make an oral presentation incorporating their knowledge in all the subjects. The perky team from Parkview Baptist captured the first place award in the Oral Presentation category.

The Acadiana Home School team won the overall competition and represented Louisiana at the Canon Envirothon in Geneva, NY in August. The Parkview Baptist team won second place, taking a handsome plaque back to their school. The Louisiana Section of the Air & Waste Management Association provided $200 savings bonds for each student on the Parkview Baptist team. The St. James Wade Dubea, Louisiana Dept. of Ag & Forestry and Jonathan Dearbone of The Nature Conservancy join Parkview Baptist Eagles in celebrating their first place win in oral presentations.

Organizers Colette Anzalone and Karen Fisher-Brasher join Parkview Baptist Eagles as they celebrate capturing second place at Louisiana Envirothon 2007.

Parish FFA team won third place, taking a handsome laser etched plaque back to their school.

Organizers send their special thanks to the Louisiana Section of the Air & Waste Management Association for their generous support of the Louisiana Envirothon. Individuals and corporations interested in sponsoring the Louisiana Envirothon should email Colette Anzalone of ULL at caa5059@louisiana.edu. Visit www.deq.louisiana.gov/envirothon for more information on the event.

The Louisiana Section of the A&WMA is offering opportunities for companies to sponsor breaks or meals at this year's Fall Conference. Sponsorship costs are $500 for a Breakfast or Break Sponsorship and $1,000 for a Lunch or Dinner Sponsorship. Please note, these sponsorship funds do not cover the actual cost of the event. In addition, sponsorship is non-exclusive - that is, two or more companies may be accepted for the same activity. However, every effort will be made to spread the sponsorships evenly throughout the program. If your company is interested in an exclusive sponsorship for an event, we will be happy to work with you. Please call for further information.

In return for your sponsorship of a Breakfast or Break, you will be given the opportunity to erect a sign of your design in the area in which the event is taking place. Signs are expected to be prepared with good professional judgment. The sign may not state or imply that the sponsor is covering the actual full cost of the activity. If it does, the sign will be removed. For a Lunch or Dinner Sponsorship, the same applies as above for the posting of signs. In addition, you may distribute a promotional gift of some kind. The promotional item may be set on the tables at each place or arranged on a side table for distribution.
